

Let's talk about art

It was as arty an evening as it could get. Last weekend, the city's art lovers thronged this venue for a dekho of some acrylics, oils and black and white photographs on display. Over cocktails and canapés, the guests chatted with the artist about his inspiration. Spotted enjoying the show was Deepa Subramaniam who admired the Buddha series on canvas, submerged in scarlet and the mixed media works. BT also spotted artist Shan Re indulging in some friendly chit chat.
