

▶▶ trending in the city: art bengaluru

Art Bengaluru 2011 is organised jointly by Art Chutney, The Collection at UB City and Sublime Galleria. Celebrating contemporary art, the second year of the showing has opened its doors to galleries out of the city too. Of the things you mustn't miss at this art fair are: The car installation by Yusuf Arakkal, you can get a portfolio of four prints. The gigantic sculpture titled Red Indian by Illiyas Ahmed. A gallery of masters ranging from Abanindranath Tagore to Nandalal Bose and Jamini Roy. There are about eight paintings from the masters and more, including one by Rabindranath Tagore is expected. Artworks for within Rs 30, 000 are also available for first time art buyers. Large works like those by Anand Bedrala are available in this range.

The auction is another much anticipated event at Art Bengaluru with nearly 60 to 70 lots under the hammer. This will be conducted by noted auctioneer Angira Ariya and the proceeds will go to HCG

Foundation that is dedicated to providing free cancer treatment to poor patients. The local galleries at the festival include Mahua Art Gallery, iArt Gallery, Sublime, Maya Art Gallery, Gallery Third Eye, Gallery Time and Space, Vama Sangama, Artville, Galerie Sara Arakkal, Gallerie De'Arts, Kalaa Art Space and Art Chutney. Outside galleries include Atreyi Gallery, Kanpur, Gallery Art Colosseum, Gurgaon, Gallery Khamaaj, Calcutta, Gallerie Alternatives, Gurgaon and Ayya Art Gallery, Chennai.

Art Bengaluru at UB City till June 25.